FRIDAY HORNING, DEC. 7, 1855

80 The Rev. James C. Richmon will deliver a lecture this evening, at 7 o'clock, at Aquidneck Hall, on the man ners and customs of the Turks. Mr. R. has spent a good deal of time in traveling among the Turks, and is perfectly familian with their manners and customs. He is one of the most interesting and amusing lcclurers that we have ever heard, and we hope to see the Hall crowded this evening. Admission 12 1-2 cents.

IF In Washington city the other morning a lady accidentally dropped a gold dollar into a basket in which were live chickens for sale. One of the chickens instantly caught up the glittering bait and swallowed it. The lady did the next best thing by buying the fowl, and probably before dinner she had her dollar again.

The forthcoming report of the Secretary of the Treasury will, it is said strongly recommend that manufactured wool, with chemicals and dye-stuffs, should hereafter be admitted free of duly. With regard to iron, the Secretary will have nothing to propose to interfere with the present tariff. A large space in the report will be taken up by careful and clahorate argument in support of the policy indicates which is very generally approved by the manufacturers in the eastern States. The report is now ready, but is yet to undergo a thorough revision.

EXTRACRDINARY PROPOSITION. lias been introduced into the Legislature of Georgia, proposing to confiscate, for the benefit of the owners of fugitive slaves, the debts due by citizens of Georgia to the citizens of the State to which slaves may have escaped, if the authorities of that State refuse to deliver up the slaves upon claim of their rightful owners.

GIANTS WITH TAILS .- Prof. Hitchcock of Amherst, Mass., says in a letter to Prof. Silliman, that he has procured a slab weighing nearly a ton, from the town of Gill, Mass., "containing four gigantic tracks, apparently of a biped, yet accompanied by most distinct traces of a tail."-He adds: "It is certainly one of the mos remarkable tracks which I have seen, and will probably throw light on the character of the animals that left the footmarks of this valley. I propose for the name of the animal that made the tracks, that of Gigadipus caudates, or biped ta'l giant."

- PX-COS: INDEX: NOOR STORES Friday last, the house of Ex-Gov. Hunt, at Lockport, N. Y., was entirely destroyed by fire. His library was saved, and most of the furniture and valuables. The building was about one mile from the contre of Lockport, benutifully located, having a fine view on Lake Ontario. It was completed the past year, and cost about $10,000. The entire loss is estimated at $15,000 of which $7000 is covered by insurance in Hartford.

BREADSTUFFS .- Speaking of the prevailing high prices of breadstuffs and the inmense supplies for exportation which the country is capable of affording, the Buffulo Courier remarks :---

There is hardly any limit to our surplus of wheat and corn, and if the demand abroad should carry off 100,000,000, bushels, which is almost four times as much as we have exported in one year, there would still be an abundant supply for home consumption. Strange as it may seem that with a large surplus on hand, fully equal to supply the demand from abroad, prices should rule so high; it is, nevertheless, in obedience to a law of trade, makes a sadden impulse push the market values beyond a due limit, as well as to unother law of trade, which makes a derangement in the order to the order to the produce, for rate to the produce, for rate to the produce of an actual actual to the produce consequences of an actual actual to the produce to Love vs. The Ministry.-"The course of true love never run smooth." A young minister, attached to an Old School Preshyterian church, in this city, has for some time past been paying his addresses to the lady of wealth, who resides & Virginia VI. No we understand, has been divocate, her first marriage being a forced one. The minis ter's congregation heard of the intended match, and a meeting of the trustees, or proper officers, was called to take the mater into consideration. The rule of church forbidding a minister to marry with a divorced woman was pointed out to the lover, and he was then asked to resign his love and liopes of counubial bliss. The minister, after mature deliberation, determined to resign his place in the Church, along with its salary, and to cling to her to whom, no doubt, his heart's bost affection have been given.-Phila. Ledger.

Rev. H. C. DEAR, of the Methodist church, was elected Chaplain of the United States Senate on Tuesday last, Later From Surope.

HALIFAX, Desember 5. The Royal Mail steamship America Captain Long, arrived bereat an early house this foremon.

The advices from Liverpool are to Satur day the 24th of November-one week later then those received by the Atlantic.

The America will be due at Boston at about noon on Thursday, so that her mails will reach New York in season for delivery on Friday morning.

The male features of the news is a report that General Canrobert has concluded a treaty of alliance between Sweden and the Western powers, to take active effect both by land and sea in the Spring. The rumor, however, is believed to be prema-

. Peace rumors were quite abundant. It was asserted that the Czar had given his assent to Prussia's informing the Western Powers that he is willing to treat for peace. All these reports, however, lack coinfirms tion, and are regarded as doubtful.

No active hostilities had occurred since the last advices, either in the Crimes, Southern Russia or Asia.

From the Cremen it is reported that the Allies have determined upon a grand bombardment of the Russian position on the North side of Schastopol.

The King of Sardinia was in Paris, and a cordial reception was tendered him. COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENE.

The Liverpool Cotton market was dull, and general decline had taken place upon the quotations advised per the Atlantic, reaching in some cases to 3-8 per lb.

Thu week's buisness was restricted to 35,000 bales, nearly all of which were taken by the trade and exporters.

In Breadstuff a limited business had beer transacted, and prices had undergone a slight decline, say to the extent of about 2d on wheat, and 6d each on flour and corn In provision no change of moment had occurred, and the market closed stendy. . In the London market there was continu ed stringency, but notwithstanding this drawback, the closing quotations for consols were 8813-4 88 7-8-advance of nearly one per cent, upon the rates occured at the departure of the last steamer.

"Love at First Sight."-As a very in eresting young lady was passing down Main st. yesterday morning, she was somewhat startled upon bearing some one behind her in carnest entreaty that she would stop; looking around she beheld a man, apparently well dressed, but with a wild look, rapidly approaching her. With admirable coolness, the lody waited his approach, and upon his resting his hand upon her shoulder said: "Well, sir, can I do anything for, you ?" . "Yes, madame, you can," replied the maniae. "I am in search of a partner and a bosom friend." "Well," answered the lady, "almost any one who behaves think, easily find one" "Do you really think so," was the rejoinder, "then, madame," laying his hand impressively upon his breast, "allow me to make you a formal offer of my heart and hand." The lady, not at all taken aback by so astounding a declaration, quietly replied, "that the street was hardly a proper place for so important a declaration-that a more priate one woule be better suited for so delivate a communication. "The maniae, soothed and delighted, with visions, perhaps of a cosy tete-a-tete with his fairlinterlocutor at some future time, said, "I thank you for your good advice-good morning," and departed with a graceful how-leaving the young lady to pursue her walk without further molestation.-Buffalo Adv.

FASTIDIOUS .- A weslthy S. Domingo coffee dealer, whose skin was rather dark essayed to dine last week at one of the Boston restaurants, when the waiter informed him that it was against the rules to entertain colored persons. A row ensuedwhich required the interference of the police; but it appears that the gentleman did not succeed in getting his dinner. Boston folks are full of notions. Sometimes black appears to be their favorite color; at other times they manifest the greatest repugnance to it.

Woman's Sorrow.-The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph narrates the particulars of a sad incident which recently occurred on a railroad connecting with that city :---

A poor, forsaken mother, with her sick babe, enters the cars of Columbus for Mocon, Ga. She has been at the former place in pursuit of an unfaithful husband and an unfeeling father. Failing in her object, she returns to her desolate home, about fifteen miles from Macon. The babe dies in her arms, unattended by a single mourner save the heart-stricken and heart-broken mother-no kind hand to wait upon her in this hour of her deep affliction. A passengor took a seat by her side, closed the eyes of the lifeless corpse, and tried to administer words of consolution to the bereaved mother. Mr. Lindsay, the kind-hearted and gentlemanly conductor, made her situation known to some of the passengers, and took up a subscription for this poor and helpless woman. When we arrived at the Macon depot, the mother, with her dead habe in her arms, set out for her home her eyes strenning with tears at each mournful step.

NOTHING IS LOST.

Nothing is loss: the drop of days Which trembles on the leef or flower Is but exhaled to fall anew." In summer's thunder phover ; Perchance to shine within the bow That frontashe pen at full of day ; Perchance to sparkle in the flow Of fountains far away.

By wild birds borne or breezes blown, Finds something suited to its need, Wherein the sown and grows. The language of some household song, The perfuse of some cherished flower, Though gone from autward sense, belong To memory's after hour.

Nothing is lost : the tiniest seed,

So with our words : or barehor kind, Uttered, they are not forgot; They leave their influence on the mind, Pass on, but perish not ! So with our deeds: for good or ill They have their power, scarce understood; Then let us use our hetter will To make them rife with good !

Ан AUTUMNAL RPISOUE .- The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, pauses in the midst of his political duties, and sontimentalizes in the following happy strain upon scence we all love to contemplate: "The contrast between the gay colors of newly painted houses, with their rich window-curtains, and the soft and golden hues of fading autumn is far from pleasant. It makes me long to revisit once more my boyhood's happy rural home. It brings back the sad wail of the autumn breeze, mingled with the rain of falling bickory-nuts; pictures of trees once black with grapes, now already half dismantical; and of hands stained with the labors of gathering the winter stores of walnuts. It recalls the happy bours when I sought an open grassy spot in the woods; and watched, with listless dreamy idleness, the progress of the falling leaves as one by one, with a soft creak of farewell, they purt from the parent stem, flutter for a moment as if recoiling like the human soul, from their fearful and untried voyage, then fulling in graceful and eddying circles until they reach the ground. A gentle sigh of grief escapes them as they touch their last resting place, and an answering sigh reminds the heart that the life of the leaf is expansied, and with it fled all its interestits poetry. "Tis now a withered leaf, and possesses no more interest than the dust of our forms to those that will live after us. Earth opens her besom to receive us as well as the falling leaf. The life that bursts from the bud into the beautiful leaf is fled, we know not whither. Our life's sint is also waning to its setting, and wheth er from afar the first streaks of dawn are seen is a question above the ken of philosophy to answer. But, hold ! I have let the dreamy sadness of autumn (as, if left thto that the which is beyond the tand of dreams, and I trust, too of tears. In three weeks more every mon, woman and child in the Union will be here, I mean in the persons of their Representatives, for it is the foundation of Republicanism that the neonle act properly through and by their Representatives in Congress assembled. If his be true, what right have we to complain of the occasional episodes which occur during a session of Congress ?"

THE FASHIONS .- We have had no reason to complain this season of a want of variety in the fashions. In promenading Chestnut street we scarcely find two ladies or gentlemen costumed alike. The most prominent feature among the throng of fashions worn by our own sex, we noticed romantic looking talmas and slouched hats, worthy of being worn by gay cavaliers; overcouts, the skirts of which reach al most to the heels, causing young men to wear, in the distance, the aspect of grandfathers vests that fairly flame in their brilliant hues and short cloaks, eminently efficient in rendering long legged individuals remarkable specimens of the Shanghae, Among the ladies we notice that the majority are afflicted with an idefinite idea of extension in the matter of skirts, and that they seem determined to keep the sterner sex at a respectful distance. Lovers, afraid to defy the fashion, are resigning themselves to despair. As high winds prevail just at this season, the ladies may be said to sail along the promanade under a heavy press of crimoline, and certainly need a strong tow when the gale chances to be ahead. As to the number and value of the articles wornwell the country is prosperous, and it is presumed that there are a number of fathomless pursus in our midst .-- Phil. North American.

PRESIDENTIAL MOVEMENT.-The New York Mirror learns that there is an active organization going on in that city and State for the purpose of procuring the nomination of R. M. T. Huuter, of Virginia, for President, and Augustus Schell, of New York city, for Vice-President.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Daily Advertiser telegraphs that some rich developments with regard to the British enlistments in this country are promised in the President's message. Look out for music.

THE GRAVE OF MADISON, -A corresondent of the Fredericksburg News, in Culpeper county, Va. gives a melancholy picture of the last reating place of the illustrious Madison. He lies with his family, in a graveyard a short distance from him in a graveyare a sourt unstance in the house, upon his estate of Montpellier; (the family cemetery is surrouded by a brick wall, and the gate is entirely down. correspondent says that not a stone the great man's reating place; dark, run-ing green box wraps it with vendure, and the treacery of branches from an old leafless chestnut tree, relieving itself against the warm azuro sky, nod and wave over Tisa solemn, calm, the dark monintain.

The correspondent adds that Mrs. Madion's remains are in a vault of the Congressional burial grounds in Washington. Her direction was to be interred by the ide of her husband, but her son has never fulfilled her request.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S
HAIR RESTORATIVE
TS, no doubt, the most wannerful discovery of this age of progress. The following is from a distinguished member of the medical profession:

sion:

St. Paul, Junnary 1, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood, "Dear Sir"—Unsolicited, I send you this certificate. After boing nearly bald for a long time, and having tried all the bair cestoratives exiant, and having rot fall the bair cestoratives exiant, and baving no falth in my, I was induced on barring of yours, to give it a trial. I placed myself in the hands of a barber, and thad my head well rubbed with a good stiff brush, and the Restorative than applied and well rubbed in, till the scalp was all a glow. This I created the every morning, and in three weeks the brush, and the fectorative then applied and well rubbed in, till the scalp was all a glow. This I repeated every morning, and in three weeks the young hair appeared, and grew rapidly from August last up to the present time, and is now thick, thack, and strong—soft and pleasant to the touch, whereas before it was harsh and wiry, what little there was of it and that little was disappearing rapidly. I still use your-Restnative about twice a week, and shall soon have a good and perfect 'erop of hair. Now I have read of these things—and who has not !—but have never seen hitherto, any case in which any person's hair was readly benefitted by any of the hair tonics, &c., of the, day; and it really gives me pleasure to record the result of my experience. I have recommended your preparation to others, and it afriendly has a large and general su'e' throughout the Tarritory. The people here saw its effects, and have confidence in it. All who have used it here, will coincide with me in what I have written. The supply you sent us, as the wholesale agents for the Territory, is pleady exhausted, and daily institute of more than the supplied of the control of the supplied of the control of you sent us, as the wholesale agents for the Territory, is already exhausted, and daily inquiries are made for it. You deserve credit for your discovery. I for one return your linaks for the brankit it has done me, for I certainly had despaired long ago, of ever effecting such result. I congratulate you that your fortune (and a large one) is already made.

Frut. Wood,—Dear Sir.—Having made a trial of your Hoir Rastorative, it gives me pleasure to say that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff, and a constitut itelium with which I have been troubled from childhood, and has also restured hard which was becoming gray, to its originat, color.
I have used no other article with anything like the pleasure and profit.

Louisville, Jan. 27, 1851.

The Lightning Candictors on the plan of J.
Spratt, of Gueinati, appear to be very well devised, and in point of menhanical construction, are the best I have ever scene.

It is to be hoped that the use of these rods may become general as an important auxiliary definee-agoinst a danger which must be regarded as of no ordinary magnitude, to which all buildings are liable.

B. SILLIMAN, Jr.

Prof. of Chem. in the Univ. of Louisville;

This will certify that I have examined the Lightning Rods, Metallic Points, and Insulating Attachments, manufactured by Mr. Spratt, Obio, and regard them as conof Cincinnate, Ohio, and regard them as constructed in conformity to the general laws of the electric fluid; and the Gilded Copper Branched Points, as promising, from the results of several tests to which they were submitted, to resist for years the action of those atmospheric causes most likely to corrude them.
